Recording music is serious business and you need a hot commodity on your side like Road Ready's RRDRC. Designed specifically for KORG, Akai and Roland digital recording studios and multitrack CD recorders, the RRDRC is built to accommodate all units up to 22" long, 15" wide, and 7" high. Because your gear can change and your case shouldn't we created the RRDRC with our exclusive high-density Pick-&-Fit foam which allows you to create the perfect custom storage space for the gear. Simply shape the Pick-&-Fit foam to create your perfect fit. If your needs change, your case doesn't have to; Pick-&-Fit foam replacements are readily available.

100% Road Ready.
